Secious i pursuits. Every one knows, especially within the past two years, when everything has taken on a more serious aspect that charity and the need for charity are a part of the daily foutine. Lectures and read-ing and deep, earnest study have held a large part of the interest of the smart set. Any number of women in Honolulu have taken, and taken it very seriously, too, the Red Cross urse and have passed well. This work has not been confined to any cial age, for the young debutante well as her grandmother have been mbers of the same class. The exninations were stiff ones indeed, and taking too exams went in fear trepidation. The army officers arge have always been most kind and courteous and gave all the assist-ance possible, and the return of the papers from Washington has kept many a society bud and matron on a as edge. Another of the interts here is the weekly readings held different homes, where the different makes of art are very thoroughly into, the drama coming in for its sterest that the women of Hoare taking up seriously.
